

James LeGrand Bio

James LeGrand is the current Agency Liaison at the State Office of Risk Management. With over 20+ years of state service, James has worked for various state agencies including the Texas General Land Office, Texas Department of Insurance, and the Texas Senate. Prior to working for the State of Texas, James served 5 years in the U.S. Marine Corps, where he did 2 overseas deployments and served as an Arabic translator. James is a graduate of the University of Texas at Austin and lives near Austin with his wife and 2 daughters.