

Paul Morris, Director
SHSU Office of Compliance and Insurance

Paul Morris leads the Business Continuity effort for the university. He is a leadership and management professional with 30 years of experience in higher education, healthcare, cancer research, federal & state regulatory functions and state agencies. He is also a USCG veteran. His prior state experience also includes working with Texas Health & Human Services Commission. He has consulted on internal controls, risk assessment and compliance with federal regulation, and led emergency response efforts relate to pandemics, oil spills of national significance and hurricanes. Paul is a CPA, certified auditor, and is a qualified Federal On-Scene Coordinator's Representative and ICS Liaison Officer.