

Zac Vacek

Zac Vacek is a seasoned insurance professional who joined Beazley in 2022 to spearhead the underwriting efforts for Beazley's dynamic assailant and crisis response program, known as Deadly Weapons Protection. With nearly a decade of comprehensive experience in the insurance sector spanning brokerage and carrier roles, Zac brings a wealth of expertise to his current position. Zac specializes in advising organizations on risk assessment and mitigation strategies pertaining to active assailant and workplace violence incidents. His proficiency includes educating insureds on the array of risk transfer and crisis management solutions available in the marketplace, ensuring robust protection tailored to their specific needs.